

Call for paper for the Maghrebian Review of Documentation and Information n° 31 (2022)

Dear colleagues,

The Maghrebian Review of Documentation and Information is an annual academic review with a reading committee, regularly published by the Higher Institute of Documentation - University of Manouba (Tunisia) since 1983. It publishes articles on information science, library science and archives, in three languages (Arabic, French and English). It will appear in a paper-based form as well as an electronic form.

The Higher Institute of Documentation supports the Open Access model for scientific publications. The last nine issues (2013-2021) of MRDI have just been made available online for free at the following URL:

www.revue-uma.rnu.tn

The other issues will also be posted soon. All the articles of the next issue will be available in Open Access under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 license.

We are asking for your contribution for the next issue of the review (n° 31/2022). Please submit your articles, before June 30th, 2022. This may be done directly on the journal website indicated above after (having created an account) or sent by email to the following address: rmdi@isd.uma.tn.

In case of submission on the website and to maintain anonymity and facilitate the evaluation of articles, you are requested to submit your article in Word format while removing the name of the author and the affiliation. These metadata will be indicated when depositing on the platform.

In case of access difficulties, please contact:

mohamedsalah.kadri@isd.uma.tn

Thank you for distributing this call for paper on your networks.

Faithfully yours

The Scientific Committee
